About Voice of Salam

Voice of Salam (Voice of Peace) was founded in 2015 to raise awareness of a range of global issues and advocate for the promotion, protection and understanding of human rights, interfaith, social and cultural issues.

Vision

Voice of Salam’s vision is of a world where every human being is treated with equal dignity with full respect to their human rights, regardless of their gender-identity, sexuality, ethnic background, nationality or religious affiliation.

Mission

Voice of Salam’s mission is to break down barriers between people from diverse faith and cultural communities and promote the protection of human rights worldwide.

Aims

To raise awareness of, campaign and advocate for a wide range of socio-cultural, human rights, intercultural and interfaith issues.

Values

Voice of Salam's key values are: peace, equality, inclusivity and transparency.

Please note:

Voice of Salam stands against all forms of hatred, including antisemitism, anti-Muslim hatred/Islamophobia, racism, xenophobia, homophobia, transphobia, misogyny and discrimination against people living with disabilities.

Voice of Salam refers to the IHRA definition of antisemitism.

Voice of Salam is a non-partisan, non-political organisation made of up members of varied faith and cultural backgrounds. Voice of Salam does not hold an official position on political issues and global conflicts including the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Voice of Salam would like to see a future free from violence in which Israelis and Palestinians can both live in freedom, peace and security.

Voice of Salam is an inclusive platform and does not discriminate on any basis whatsoever. Submissions are subject to quality and ethical controls only.

By joining Voice of Salam, you are therefore bound to legal and ethical standards relating to confidentiality, safeguarding, data protection, copyright, non-discrimination and anti-plagiarism. As a member of the Voice of Salam team, you therefore agree to adhere by these key values, standards and guidelines, including the IHRA definition of antisemitism. Should break any of the standards or clauses in the declaration below, your relationship with Voice of Salam will be terminated and if necessary, appropriate legal action may be taken.

Declaration

- I agree to work according to the above values, vision and mission of Voice of Salam and understand that any conduct and communications (online, offline, written or verbal) which I display either on behalf of Voice of Salam or in a personal capacity which go against these values will result in the termination of my relationship with Voice of Salam.
- All work I undertake and submit to Voice of Salam will be my own (unless otherwise stated), and will be honest, true and conducted with the full permission and consent of anyone else involved (interviewees etc.).

- I agree to adhere to all legal standards of copyright, data protection and to respect the confidentiality of the Voice of Salam team, interviewees and contributors.
